

All Saints, Lower-marsh, Lambeth," and that the boundaries thereof should be those comprised and set forth in the description of such district as hereinafter mentioned, the chapelry district of All Saints, Lower-marsh, Lambeth, commences at the river Thames, on the northern side of Westminster-bridge, and then proceeds in a northerly direction by low water mark as far as College-street, then proceeding in a south easterly direction along the middle of College-street, crossing the Belvidere-road, and passing along the middle of Vine-street as far as the house numbered 26 in that street, and then proceeding in a straight line in a south easterly direction to the north eastern end of Mill-street, and passing down the middle of that street into Granby-street, which last mentioned street it crosses over to a passage, situate between the houses numbered 70 and 71 in that street, along which said passage it then proceeds and enters into James-street, at the western side of the beer-shop, number , called the Pen Cutters' Arms, along the middle of which street it proceeds in an easterly direction and enters Lambeth Lower-marsh, and then proceeds south westerly along the middle of such marsh until it enters the Bridge-road, along the middle of which road it then proceeds north westerly and westerly to the point where the said district commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured pink :

" That banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and also burials so soon as a burial ground can be procured for the said district chapelry of All Saints, should be solemnized and performed in the said church of All Saints; and that all the fees to arise therefrom should be received for on account of and paid to the Reverend Robert Irvine, the present Incumbent of the said district parish of Saint John, Waterloo-road, Lambeth, during his incumbency thereof; and that after the next avoidance of such incumbency the said fees should belong to the Minister or Incumbent for the time being of the said church, called All Saints' Church :

" That the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Lord Bishop of Winchester, as Bishop of the said diocese, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section first hereinbefore mentioned; and also the consent of the said Robert Irvine, as the Incumbent of the said district parish, as required by the Act and section lastly hereinbefore mentioned, that the subdivision of such district parish, by forming thereout a district chapelry as aforesaid, shall take effect from the assignment of such district chapelry; in testimony whereof, the said Charles Richard Lord Bishop of Winchester and Robert Irvine have severally signed and sealed this representation :

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect to the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

C. C. Greville.

Cambridge-House, October 19, 1847.

The Duke of Cambridge has been pleased to appoint Henry Stanhope Illingworth, Esq. to be Joint Apothecary with Edward D. Moore, Esq. to His Royal Highness's Household.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time after the passing of that Act, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant; and, from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof; and, by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates that might be payable were to be paid; and it is provided, that the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage should extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of colonial posts," power is given to the said Commissioners, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of colonial postage payable by law for the transmission of letters by the post, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, in like manner as in the said first mentioned Act is enacted in respect of British or inland postage on foreign or colonial letters, and the power by the said Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, given to alter and fix rates of postage is declared to extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage:

And whereas an Act was passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office:—"

Now we, the undersigned, being three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers or authorities in us for such purpose vested in and by the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, do hereby order and direct, that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by packet boat between the islands of Martinique and Guadeloupe respectively, and also between those islands respectively and British North America or the British West Indies (not forwarded through the United Kingdom), there shall be charged and taken (in lieu of any rates of postage now payable thereon) one uniform rate of postage of four pence.

And we further direct, that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in any post town in the island of Hong Kong, in the Chinese Sea, addressed to any person or place within such town or the suburbs thereof, there shall be charged and taken (in lieu of any rates of postage now payable thereon) one uniform rate of postage of one penny.

And we further direct, that on every such letter as in this warrant is before mentioned, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, contained, as to letters estimating and charging each additional rate at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And whereas by a warrant, dated the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, it was ordered and directed, that on all letters, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by packet boat between any of the countries or places following (that is to say), the Cape of Good Hope, or any ports on the eastern coast of Africa, the coast of Arabia, the Red Sea, the Persian Gulf, the Bay of Bengal, the Indian Ocean, any ports in Hindostan, Ceylon, the Mauritius, or the East India Islands; and any of the countries or places following (that is to say), any ports in China, the Chinese Sea, the Phillipines, the Moluccas, Australia, and New Zealand; or between any of the countries and places respectively next hereinafter mentioned (that is to say), the Cape of Good Hope, any ports on the eastern coast of Africa, the coast of Arabia, the Red Sea, the Persian Gulf, the Bay of Bengal, the Indian Ocean, any ports in Hindostan, Ceylon, the Mauritius, the East India Islands, any ports in China, the Chinese Sea, the Phillipines, the Moluccas, Australia, and New Zealand (except between Australia and New Zealand); or between two ports in any of the countries or places hereinbefore mentioned (excepting ports in Australia and ports in New Zealand), there should be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of one shilling, and progressive and additional rates of postage were thereby imposed on letters exceeding half an ounce in weight; but it was provided, that nothing therein contained should extend to charge with any new or additional rate of postage any letters conveyed by packet boat as aforesaid, which by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, were chargeable with the Red Sea or Persian Gulf rate of postage:

Now we, the undersigned, in exercise of all powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, do hereby order and direct, that nothing in the said recited warrant of the eleventh of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, contained shall extend to charge with the rates of postage thereby fixed or established any letters conveyed by any of Her Majesty's Mediterranean packet boats, viâ Southampton, between the United Kingdom and the East Indies, the Indian Ocean, Ceylon, the Mauritius, China, the Chinese Sea, the Phillipines, the Moluccas, Australia, New Zealand, or any other countries, islands, or places, viâ Syria or Egypt, although such letters may not be chargeable with the Red Sea or Persian Gulf rate of postage.

And we further order and direct, that on every printed foreign newspaper conveyed by the post between Gibraltar or any other British colony in the Mediterranean and the island of Hong Kong, or any other British colony in the East Indies, the Chinese Seas, or elsewhere (the sea conveyance being by packet boat), there shall be charged and paid one uniform rate of postage of one penny, in addition to any rate of transit postage payable in respect of such newspaper, so far as the same shall be forwarded by land through Egypt or any other foreign country.

And we hereby further order and direct, that on every printed newspaper (whether British, colonial, or foreign) conveyed by the post between any of Her Majesty's colonies or possessions in the Mediterranean, and any port or place in China or the Phillipine Islands, and whether the sea communication shall be by packet boat or private ship, there shall be paid one uniform rate of sea postage of two pence; and if the same shall be also conveyed by land, any foreign rate of postage payable in respect of such newspaper, so far as the same shall be conveyed by land, shall be payable thereon in addition to the said rate of two pence.

And we hereby further order and direct, that on all printed pamphlets or publications, printed within the United Kingdom and sent by the post between any places within British North America, or within the British West Indies, or between any place in British North America and any place in British West Indies, there shall be charged and paid, in lieu of all other inland colonial rates of postage now payable in respect thereof, a colonial inland rate of one penny for every ounce weight thereof; and every fraction of an ounce shall be charged as one ounce.

And we further direct, that no such pamphlet or publication, exceeding the weight of sixteen ounces, shall be forwarded by the post.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall repeal or alter, or be construed to repeal or alter, the rate of postage fixed by a certain warrant, bearing date the eleventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, on printed pamphlets and publications printed within the United Kingdom or British North America or the British West Indies, and forwarded (whether by post or not) between the United Kingdom and British North America or the British West Indies.

And whereas by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, seamen and soldiers, while actually employed in Her Majesty's service, and soldiers, while actually employed in the service of the East India Company, are empowered to send and receive letters, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, by the post, on their own private concerns, at a postage of one penny for each letter, under and subject to the regulations, restrictions, and conditions therein mentioned; and by the said Act such privileged persons are empowered to send and receive letters, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, by private ships, between the United Kingdom and places beyond the seas, on their own private concerns, at a like postage for each letter, subject to the like conditions and regulations, in all respects, as were thereinbefore mentioned in respect of letters sent and received by such privileged persons by the post, but so that whenever the letters sent or received by any such privileged persons should be conveyed, or intended to be conveyed, by private ships, the gratuities payable by law to the masters of such vessels, in respect of such letters, should, in all cases, be paid to the post-office in addition to such postage:

And whereas by a warrant, dated the twenty-eighth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, under the hands of three of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the like privilege of sending and receiving letters by the post are extended to seamen, while actually employed in the service of the said East India Company; and such privilege as aforesaid of sending and receiving letters by private ships, between the United Kingdom and places beyond the seas, or between places beyond the seas, is also extended to such seamen as last aforesaid:

Now we, the undersigned, in exercise of all powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, do hereby order and direct, that any such privileged person as is named in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and also every seaman employed abroad in the service of the East India Company, whilst actually employed in the service of such Company, may both send and receive letters, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, by private ships, between any two of Her Majesty's colonies, whether through the United Kingdom or not, on their own private concerns, in like manner as the privileged persons mentioned in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, are authorized to send and receive letters, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, on their own private concerns, between the United Kingdom and places beyond the seas, provided, that whenever the letters sent or received by any such persons privileged under this warrant shall be conveyed, or intended to be conveyed, by private ships, the gratuities payable by law to the masters of such vessels, in respect of such letters, shall in all cases be paid to the post-office in addition to such postage.

And whereas by the said warrant, of the twenty-eighth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, it was directed, that in all cases in which a letter, addressed to any commissioned officer of the army, navy, or ordnance, or any of the departments belonging thereto respectively, employed on actual service in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or on any foreign station, should be forwarded by the post, and before the delivery of such letter at the place of its address, the officer to whom it should be addressed should, in the execution of his duty, have removed from that place to any other place (whether at home or abroad), the letter should be forwarded to the latter place, and should not be charged with more than the postage which would have been payable for the letter in case the same had been delivered at the place to which it was originally addressed:

Now we do hereby further direct, that the said last-mentioned clause shall not extend, nor be deemed or construed to extend, to any letter sent by the post from any place in the United Kingdom, addressed to any commissioned officer at any other place in the United Kingdom, and who, before the delivery thereof at the place of its address, shall, in the execution of his duty, have removed from that place to any place beyond the seas; which letter shall be chargeable with the same rates of postage as if the said clause had not been inserted in the said warrant of the twenty-eighth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

And whereas by the said Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by warrant under their hands, to extend to all or any of Her Majesty's colonies any of the enactments, clauses, and provisions (not then relating to or affecting the colonies) contained in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and any of the enactments, clauses, and provisions (not then relating to or affecting the colonies) contained; or which might be contained in any other of the Post-office Acts then or thereafter to be in force, and from time to time revoke any such warrant; and that, during the time any such warrant should be unrepealed, the enactments, clauses, and provisions which might be extended to any such colonies should be in force in such colonies, in like manner as if the same had been declared by any such Act to extend to such colonies:

Now we do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands, extend to the island of Hong Kong, in the Chinese Sea, so much of the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, as enacts, that the Postmaster General may appoint any person to demand from the masters of vessels, arriving at or off a port in the United Kingdom, all letters on board the same not exempted by the Post-office Acts; and that the master of any such vessel shall forthwith deliver all such letters on board to such person on his demanding the same.

And we do also extend to the said island of Hong Kong, and to all other Her Majesty's colonies where the Postmaster General has established, or shall hereafter establish, posts, so much of an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for consolidating the laws relative to offences against the Post-office of the United Kingdom, and for regulating the judicial administration of the Post-office laws for explaining certain terms and expressions employed in those laws," as enacts, that every person, being either the master of a vessel inward bound, or one of the officers, or one of the crew, or a passenger thereof, who shall knowingly have any letter in his possession, not exempted from the privilege of the Postmaster General, after the master shall have sent any part of his ship letters to the Post-office, shall forfeit for every letter five pounds; and whether the letter be in the baggage, or on the person of the offender, or otherwise in his custody, it shall be held to be in his possession; and every such person who shall detain any such letter after demand made, either by the officer of the Customs, or by a person authorized by the Postmaster General to demand ship letters, shall forfeit for every letter ten pounds; and also so much of the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, as enacts, that all letters brought into the United Kingdom by packet boats (whether in a mail bag or not) shall be chargeable with packet postage.

And we further direct, that, for the purposes of this warrant, every printed supplement to a colonial newspaper shall be considered as a distinct newspaper, and that every printed supplement to a British newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition; and that no printed newspaper, either alone or together with the supplement or additional sheet to a newspaper, or any pamphlet or publication, shall be conveyed by the post under the regulations of this present warrant, unless the same shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the sides, and that there be no word or communication printed on the paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, or any writing or mark upon it, or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent, nor any paper or thing enclosed in or with the same.

And we further direct, that in all cases in which a question shall arise whether a printed paper is entitled to the privilege of a newspaper, or other printed paper hereby privileged, so far as respects the transmission of the same by the post under this warrant, the question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster General, whose decision, with the concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, shall be final.

And we further direct, that the several and respective rates of postage chargeable under this warrant shall be charged in sterling money.

And we further direct, that nothing contained in this warrant shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or by an Act, made and passed in the first year of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office," all which exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct, that the terms, "British North America," and "British West Indies," used in this warrant shall have the like force and operation as when used in the said warrant of the eleventh of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-three; and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury-chambers, the 7th day of October 1847.

R. M. BELLEW.
EBRINGTON.
H. RICH.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.
PORT OF LIVERPOOL.

Dock-Office, Liverpool, September 16, 1847.

(All Bearings by Compass.)

THE Trustees of the Liverpool Docks and Harbour do hereby give notice, that the following changes in the lighting, beaconing, and buoying of the northern approaches to this port will take place on and after the night of Tuesday the 2d November 1847:

Crosby Lighthouse.—A new light tower has been erected nearly half a mile N. E. by N. of the present Crosby Lighthouse. The light therefrom will be exhibited, for the first time, on the evening of the above date, and be continued every night from sun-set to sun-rise.

The light in this tower will be stationary, of a red colour, elevated 96 feet above the sea at half-tide level, and will be visible between the bearings of S. S. E. and N. E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. which limits will indicate respectively when a vessel is westward of Mad Wharf, and when she is abreast of the Crosby Light-vessel, and ought to shape her fairway course up the Crosby Channel.

The Formby Light-vessel will be moved 170 fathoms N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. of her present position, into 35 feet at low water. When brought in a line with the New Crosby Shore Light, she will lead in from seaward through the Victoria Channel, on a course of S. E. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E.; and when brought in a line with the Crosby Light-vessel, she will lead in through the Half-tide Swashway, on the bearing of S. S. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E.

Crosby Beacon.—The Crosby Shore Beacon will be moved nearly half a mile N. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. of its present position, on a line with the Crosby Shore Light and Formby Light-vessel.

The Bell Beacon will be moved about 170 fathoms S. W. of its present position, into 35 feet at low water, with the Formby Light-vessel and Crosby Shore Light in one, and bearing from the N. W. Light-ship N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. four miles.

V. 4, Red (Can) Buoy, with Perch, will be moved nearly a quarter of a mile N. W. by N. of its present position, into 21 feet at low water.

Formby Light Vessel bearing N. E. by E. about one sixth of a mile.

C. 1, Red (Can) S. S. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. nearly one and a half miles.

Formby N. W. Sea Mark will be moved one and one eighth mile N. N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. of its present position, and a new beacon will be erected on Mad Wharf.

These beacons, when brought in one, on the bearing of S. E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. will lead from Formby N. W. Buoy up the fairway of the entrance of the Old Formby Channel.

William Lord, Marine Surveyor.
By order of the Dock Committee,
Daniel Mason, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Saron, situated at Troedyrhiw, in the parish of Merthyr Tydfil, in the county of Glamorgan, in the district of Merthyr Tydfil, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 14th day of October 1847, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 15th day of October 1847,

Frank James, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Zion Chapel, situated in Old Bethnal-green-road, in the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and in the district of Bethnal-green, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 14th day of October 1847, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 16th day of October 1847,

Robert Brutton, Superintendent Registrar, Bethnal-green.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, named Ste. Marie's on the Sands, situated at Southport, in the parish of North Meols, in the district of Ormskirk, in the county of Lancaster, being a building licenced and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic Chapel exclusively, was, on the 21st day of September 1847, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 24th day of September 1847,

Lawrence Wright, Superintendent Registrar.