TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS the Mails passing between the United Kingdom and certain parts of the British West Indies are about to be landed at the island of Saint Thomas, and sent from thence to their places of destination;

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power and authority in us for such purpose vested, in and by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, direct, that Letters passing by the Post between the United Kingdom and the British West Indies, or between any ports in the British West Indies, or between the British West Indies and British North America respectively, landed at the island of Saint Thomas, and sent on from thence to their places of destination, shall be charged with the same rates of postage only as would have been chargeable thereon if the same had been sent direct to their places of destination without having been first landed at the said island of Saint Thomas.

And we direct, that printed Newspapers and other printed papers passing by the Post between the United Kingdom and the British West Indies, or between any ports in the British West Indies, or between the British West Indies and British North America respectively, landed at the island of Saint Thomas, and sent from thence to their places of destination, shall be considered as having passed direct to their places of destination, and be free of postage, or chargeable with postage, accordingly as the case may be.

And we direct, that Letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, brought into the United Kingdom from seamen employed in Her Majesty's Navy, when actually employed in Her Majesty's service on board Her Majesty's ships on foreign stations, on the private concerns of such seamen, shall, if enclosed in stamp covers, or having a stamp affixed thereto (the stamp being affixed or appearing on the outside, and of the value or amount of one penny, and specially provided under the authority of the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and if the stamp shall not have been used before), pass by the post free of postage as if one penny had been paid in money on such letter being put into a post-office established under the authority of the Postmaster-General as required by the said Act, provided that upon every such letter shall be subscribed the name of the writer and his class or description in the vessel to which he shall belong, and that upon every such letter there shall be written in the handwriting of and signed by the officer having at the time the command of such vessel the name of such officer, and the name of such vessel, as required by the said Act. And if any such letter shall be sent by private ships, the gratuities payable by law to the masters of such vessels in respect of such letters shall be charged on such letters and paid to the post-office by the parties to whom the same shall be addressed, provided that it shall be optional to the sender of any such letter to pay such gratuities by affixing on such letters, at the time of sending the same, additional stamps to the amount of such gratuities.

And we direct, that the term "British West Indies," in this warrant, shall include the Bermudas, the Bahamas, and other British islands commonly called the West Indies, as also the colonies of British Guiana, and Honduras, and their respective dependencies, and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any other regulations in lieu thereof.
