TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS the mails passing between the West Indies and the United States of America are about to be landed at the island of Saint Thomas, and sent from thence to their places of destination.

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power and authority in us for such purpose vested in and by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, direct that letters transmitted by packet-boat between any ports in Her Majesty's colonies, or between any port in Her Majesty's colonies and any foreign port, or between one foreign port and any other foreign port respectively, landed at the island of Saint Thomas and sent on from thence to their places of destination without passing through the United Kingdom, shall be charged with the same rates of postage only as would have been chargeable thereon if the same had been sent direct to their places of destination without having been first landed at the said island of Saint Thomas.

And we direct that printed newspapers (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign,) transmitted by packet-boat between any port in Her Majesty's colonies and any foreign port, or between one foreign port and any other foreign port respectively, landed at the island of Saint Thomas and sent on from thence to their places of destination without passing through the United Kingdom, shall be charged with the same rates of postage only as would have been chargeable thereon if the same had been sent direct to their places of destination without having been first landed at the said island of Saint Thomas.

And we direct that the several terms and expressions used in this warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any other regulations in lieu thereof.
