TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fourth year of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage."

And whereas another Act was passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas another Act was passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for regulating the transmission by the post of the newspapers hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the several before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf), do by this Warrant under the hands of two us the said Commissioners by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and consent, that the several printed newspapers, mentioned in the schedule to this Warrant annexed, shall and may be transmitted by the post between any part of the several places mentioned and set forth in the said schedule to this Warrant annexed, in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions hereinafter mentioned and contained, and that the rates of postage for the transmission thereof, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such newspapers, shall and may be those which are mentioned and set forth against the said places respectively in the said schedule, according as the said rates of postage shall be mentioned or set forth against the said places respectively in the said schedule:

1. Every such newspaper shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the sides.
2. There shall be no word or communication printed on any such newspaper after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper, or upon any cover thereof, other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent. But the name or title of such newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vender, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof.
3. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.
4. Every such newspaper shall be put into the post-office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations, as the Postmaster-General may appoint, including therein the payment of postage when put into the post-office, if the Postmaster-General shall so require.

And we do further order, direct, and consent, that every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we do further order, direct, and consent, that every British newspaper which shall be hereafter sent by the post to places out of the United Kingdom, shall be posted in the United Kingdom within fifteen days next after the day on which the same shall be published, the day of publication to be determined by the date of such publication.

And we do further order, direct, and consent, that Her Majesty's Postmaster-General shall and may charge all or any newspapers sent by the post otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations established by or under the authority of this present Warrant, with such rates or rate of postage, not exceeding in amount such rates or rate as would be chargeable upon the same as letters or a letter, as to him shall seem fit.

And we do further order and direct, that on any newspaper transmitted by the post under the regulations of this Warrant, or under the regulations of a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1848, or under the regulations of a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 13th day of October, 1852, or under the regulations of any other Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury at any time heretofore made, or under any Post Office Act at any time heretofore passed, any foreign transit rate payable on any such newspaper for passing through the Isthmus of Panama, shall be charged and paid thereon, in addition to any British postage, nevertheless nothing herein, or in the said schedule hereunto annexed, contained, shall affect or alter, or be deemed or construed to affect or alter any British rates of postage, made chargeable or payable upon any newspapers sent by the post, under or by virtue of the said Treasury Warrants, bearing date the 22nd day of February, 1848, and 13th day of October, 1852, or either of them, or to render any newspapers thereby authorised to be sent by the post free of British postage liable to British postage, notwithstanding the same shall pass through the Isthmus of Panama.

And we do further order and direct that the term "by the post" used in this Warrant, or in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall include the conveyance by any British, foreign, or colonial packet-boat, and also by private ship; and that the term "British newspapers," shall mean newspapers printed and published in the United Kingdom, whether they bear a newspaper stamp or not, and that the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant, or in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty hereinbefore recited.

And we do further order and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter, to alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates, orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.
