TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the 3rd and 4th years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight are fixed, and rates of postage made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters transmitted and forwarded by the post, and after reciting therein that letters and packets sent by the post are chargeable by law on being redirected and again forwarded by the post, with a new and distinct rate of postage, it is thereby enacted, that on every post letter redirected, there shall be charged for the postage of such letter from the place at which the same shall be redirected to the place of ultimate delivery (in addition to all other rates of postage payable thereon), such a rate of postage only as the same would be liable to if prepaid.

And whereas by the same Act the Postmaster-General is authorized to remit any of the rates of British postage or inland postage for the time being payable by law on the transmission of post letters, newspapers, or other printed papers, to such extent as the Lords of the Treasury shall from time to time direct.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, after the passing of the said above recited Act, and by virtue thereof, did, by a certain Warrant, in writing under their hands, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, make certain regulations, by which certain rates of postage then by law payable on certain letters and packets, newspapers, or other printed papers, or other things chargeable with postage, might be remitted as therein mentioned, and did declare and direct, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time thereafter, to alter or repeal any of the regulations thereby made, and to make and establish any new or other regulations in lieu thereof.

And whereas it is expedient that other regulations should be made in lieu of the said regulations made by the said recited Warrant, and for that purpose, that the said recited Warrant of the 19th day of February, 1855, should be repealed, revoked, and annulled, in the manner herein-after mentioned and contained.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, at various times since the passing of the said recited Act, and the making of the said recited Warrant, bearing date the said 19th day of February, 1855, by divers Warrants under their hands, made regulations for the transmission of divers letters, packets, printed papers, and other things by the post, and have therein ordered, directed, and declared, that the several letters, packets, printed papers, and other things transmitted by the post under the provisions of those Warrants respectively, should be subject to the several orders, directions, and regulations contained in the said recited Warrant, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, and intended to be hereby repealed, so far as the same should be applicable to such letters, packets, printed papers, and other things, and it is expedient to substitute the regulations hereinafter made and contained in this present Warrant, in all such cases for the regulations contained in the said recited Warrant, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, and intended to be hereby repealed, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for that purpose vested, in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. The said recited Warrant, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled; and the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage therein mentioned and set forth, shall wholly cease and determine on the day on which this present Warrant shall come into operation.

2. So much of every Warrant, heretofore made by the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, and bearing date at any time after the making of the said recited Warrant of the 19th day of February, 1855, as consists of or contains, or in any manner relates or refers to any order, direction, declaration, or regulation, contained in the said Warrant of the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected letters, packets, printed papers, or other things chargeable with postage, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled; and every order, direction, declaration, or regulation relating to redirected letters, packets, printed papers, or other things contained in every such Warrant shall wholly cease, determine, and be of no effect; and in lieu and instead of any such order, direction, declaration, or regulation, all letters, packets, printed papers, and other things chargeable with postage, transmitted by the post, and redirected and again forwarded by the post, by or under the provisions of every such last-mentioned Warrant, shall, upon and from and after the day on which this Warrant shall come into operation, be subject to the several orders, directions, and regulations contained in this present Warrant, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters, packets, printed papers, and other things chargeable with postage, which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto, anything in any such Warrants heretofore made, and bearing date as in this clause first-mentioned, to the contrary, notwithstanding.

3. The Postmaster General may wholly remit the redirected rates of postage, now payable by law, on all letters, packets, printed papers, or other things chargeable with postage, which shall be redirected by an Officer of the Post Office, and shall be again forwarded by the post to the same persons to whom, and within the limits of the same free delivery, within which such letters, packets, printed papers, or other things shall have been originally addressed, both such places being within the United Kingdom.

4. Subject to the directions hereinbefore in the next preceding clause contained, on all letters and packets of every description, printed papers, or other things chargeable with postage, which shall be redirected, either by an Officer of the Post Office or by any other person, and again forwarded by the post within the United Kingdom, there shall be charged for the postage of every such letter and packet, printed paper, or other thing chargeable with postage, from the place at which the same shall be redirected to the place of ultimate delivery, in addition to all other rates of postage payable thereon, such a new and distinct rate of postage as any such letter or packet, printed paper, or other thing chargeable with postage would have been liable to by law if it had been originally posted at the place where it was redirected, and there properly paid by stamps or in money when posted.

5. For the purposes of this Warrant the whole of the London Postal District shall be deemed and considered to be in one and the same free delivery.

6. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to annul, prejudice, or effect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by the said recited Act, nor to affect any letters which may now be forwarded to any other place from the place to which they were originally addressed without being charged with more than the postage originally payable for such letters, nor to annul, prejudice, or affect any privileges under which printed newspapers or other printed papers are allowed to pass by the post free of postage.

7. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act.

8. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, may, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter alter or repeal any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other regulations in lieu thereof.

9. This Warrant shall come into operation on the eleventh day of April, 1864.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the first day of April, 1864.

Wm. Dunbar.
