TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable, upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas by the said Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British Postage or Inland Postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage is extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas it is expedient that printed newspapers and packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, should be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the several places hereinafter mentioned, and for that purpose that certain rates of postage should be fixed, and certain regulations made, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers or authority in us for that purpose vested in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta or Egypt, and on every packet consisting of a printed British, colonial, or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in Malta or Egypt, addressed to the United Kingdom, and respectively transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to Malta or Egypt, and from Malta or Egypt to the United Kingdom, in the closed mail, via Marseilles, and by British packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of two pence.

2. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta, or to any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), and on every packet consisting of a printed British, colonial, or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in Malta, or in any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), addressed to the United Kingdom, and respectively transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to Malta, or any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), and from Malta, or any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), to the United Kingdom, via France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of two pence.

3. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any foreign port beyond the seas (except any foreign port to the eastward of Suez), and transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any such foreign port, via France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of two pence.

4. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, and on every packet consisting of a printed British, colonial, or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, addressed to the United Kingdom, and respectively transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, and from any place in the Republics of Bolivia, Ecuador, Peru, or Chili, to the United Kingdom by British packet boat, via Panama, there shall be charged, taken, and paid an uniform rate of postage (which shall include the cost of transmission over the Isthmus of Darien) of three pence.

5. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, in the closed mail, via Marseilles, and by British packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of four pence.

6. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta or to any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), or posted in Malta or in any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Malta or any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), via France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid a combined British and foreign rate of postage of four pence.

7. On every packet consisting of printed papers, other than newspapers not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any foreign port beyond the seas (except any foreign port to the eastward of Suez) and transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to any such foreign port via France, and by French packet boat, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, a combined British and foreign rate of postage of four pence.

8. On every packet consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, posted in any part of the United Kingdom, addressed to Shanghai, or any other port in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, or posted in Shanghai, or any other port in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Shanghai, or other ports in China at which the British mail packet boat calls, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, the rates of postage following; that is to say:—

On every such packet not exceeding four ounces in weight so transmitted, direct via Egypt, (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) an uniform single rate of postage of fourpence;

On every such packet not exceeding four ounces in weight so transmitted, in the closed mail via Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat) an uniform single rate of postage of six pence.

9. All such respective packets as hereinbefore in this Warrant mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned and set forth (that is to say):

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage;

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

10. For the purposes of this Warrant every printed newspaper transmitted under the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore-mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

11. Every packet transmitted under the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say):

Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof at the General Post Office, in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

12. Every packet transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter contained (that is to say):

No such packet which in length, or breadth, or depth shall exceed the dimensions of two feet shall be forwarded under the provisions aforesaid.

Every packet transmitted under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover, or in a cover, or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, sent in, or with any such packet, nor in the case of packets transmitted under the authority of the first, second, third, fourth, and seventh clauses of this Warrant, shall there be any writing, figures, or manual marks whatsoever, of any description, upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, not authorised by this Warrant, nor in the case of packets transmitted under the authority of the fifth, sixth, and eighth clauses of this Warrant, shall there be any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof, and any other packet, not being a newspaper, may have any matter or thing printed on the cover thereof.

Every packet transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations, as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

13. Upon every packet posted in the United Kingdom for transmission under the authority of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account.

14. Upon every packet posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, for transmission under the authority of the fifth clause of this Warrant, and upon every packet posted in Malta, or in any other British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), for transmission under the authority of the sixth clause of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted either in money or by being stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this Warrant.

15. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may (except in the cases provided for by the clauses next hereinafter contained, and numbered 16, 17, 18, 19, and 20,) be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General be either returned or given up to the sender thereof or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter, and such postage shall be either paid by the sender or be charged to the person to whom the packet shall be forwarded.

16. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such letter or communication or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of one penny, and in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the fifth, sixth, and seventh clauses of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of threepence, and in the case of packets transmitted under the provisions of the eighth clause of this Warrant, with a further and additional rate of postage of fourpence, and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

17. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the first, second, third, fourth, seventh, and eighth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom without the postage payable thereon being paid at the time of the same being posted by means of the proper postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened, and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

18. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant shall be posted in the United Kingdom without having thereon, or affixed thereto, any postage stamp or stamps, or having thereon, or affixed thereto, a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, every such respective packet shall be detained and opened; and returned or given up to the sender thereof.

19. If any packet, sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or in any British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), without any postage having been paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, or with a postage paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, less in amount than the single rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter.

20. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, under the authority of the fifth and sixth clauses of this Warrant, shall be posted in the United Kingdom, having thereon or affixed thereto a stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable thereon, or shall be posted in Malta, Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, or in any British colony (except any British colony to the eastward of Suez), and the postage paid thereon, either in money or in postage stamps, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under this Warrant, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage payable thereon, every such respective packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with the further and additional rate of postage of three pence.

21. The rates of postage chargeable on printed newspapers, and on packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers, transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates now chargeable by law thereon.

22. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted, or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought, in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

23. The term "British Newspaper," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean newspapers printed in the United Kingdom, whether they bear a newspaper stamp or not; and the terms "Books, Publications, or Works of Literature or Art," used in this Warrant, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum, (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering, of or upon or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, bookmarkers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other things usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters: provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or communication in the nature of a letter, nor of any packet consisting of or containing any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character, nor of any packet comprising prints or printed matter, unless such prints or printed matter shall consist only of prints or printed matter on paper, parchment, or vellum; and the term "printed papers," used in this Warrant, shall mean and include books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, parliamentary proceedings, proceedings of the colonial legislatures, periodical works, prices current, commercial lists, courses of exchange, sheets of music, prints, or printed or engraved maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of every kind, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and whether printed, engraved, or lithographed; and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

24. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any article, matter, or thing, transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted, within the intent and meaning of this Warrant, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

25. So much of a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 20th day of December, 1856, and so much of the Schedule F thereto, as relates to or affects British newspapers posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Malta or Egypt, transmitted by the closed mail via Marseilles, and as relates to or affects foreign and colonial newspapers posted in Malta or Egypt, addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the closed mail via Marseilles, shall be, and the same is, hereby repealed.

26. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

27. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the eleventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

GREETLAND, YORKSHIRE.

WHEREAS notice, in writing, was duly given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted by the district of Greetland, in the county of York, within the boundaries thereof set out for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858, by my Order, bearing date the 14th day of November, 1864; and whereas appeal has been duly made to me, under the provisions of the said Act, by owners and ratepayers within the said district, against the said vote of adoption, and praying that certain portions of such district should be excluded from the operation of the said Act. Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, after inquiry and report as to the circumstances of the case, made to me on the 15th day of February, 1865, by Robert Morgan, Esquire, the Inspector appointed for the purpose, do hereby, under the provisions of the said Act, issue the following Order, and do determine the questions arising on such appeal as follows:—

That it is expedient that the Local Government Act, 1858, should be adopted by the aforesaid district of Greetland (as settled by my said Order of the 14th day of November, 1864), exclusive of so much thereof as lies westward of a line commencing at the point P (on the plan accompanying the Inspector's report to me, dated 15th February, 1865), where the footbridge crosses the Black Brook; thence to Q at the foot of Outram-lane; thence along the north and east sides of the said lane to R, on the Barkisland and Elland turnpike-road; thence crossing the said turnpike road along the east side of the said Outram-lane and south side of Bryanroyd-lane to S on the Blackstone Edge turnpike-road; thence crossing the said turnpike-road along the east side of Moor Bottom-lane to T; thence in a straight line to U at the stepping stones at Copley, in the centre of the River Calder, and on the boundary between the townships of Elland and Salterhebble.

And I do hereby further order, that the Local Government Act, 1858, do come into force from and after the 31st day of March, 1865, within the district of Greetland, as altered by this Order.

Given under my hand this 11th day of March, 1865.

(Signed) G. Grey.
