TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas it is expedient to alter and fix the rates of postage upon certain letters and packets, and to make certain regulations in relation thereto, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament respectively, and all and every or some of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, declare, and direct as follows; that is to say:

1. On every letter, not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and the Netherland possessions of Surinam and Curaçoa respectively (the sea conveyance being by British or by French packet boat, or partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, or partly by French and partly by Netherland packet boat), and on every letter, not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and the Netherland possessions in the Indian Archipelago, via Southampton (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, or partly by British and partly by French packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of one shilling.

2. On every letter, not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and the Netherland possessions in the Indian Archipelago, via Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by French packet boat, or partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, or partly by French and partly by Netherland packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of one shilling and four pence.

3. All such respective letters so transmitted as is hereinbefore mentioned, if exceeding one half of an ounce in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

On every such letter, if exceeding one half of an ounce and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such letter, if exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional half of an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of an ounce shall be charged as an additional half of an ounce in weight. And each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one half of an ounce in weight,

4. Nothing herein contained shall in anywise annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, or any of the privileges which officers, seamen, and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service are by law entitled to, of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

5. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to the Netherland possessions of Surinam and Curaçoa respectively, and on every packet consisting of a printed foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from the Netherland possessions of Surinam and Curaçoa respectively, to the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken, when transmitted by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, an uniform rate of British postage of one penny, and when transmitted by French packet boat, or partly by French and partly by Netherland packet boat, an uniform rate of postage of two pence; and on every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from the United Kingdom to the Netherland possessions in the Indian Archipelago, and on every packet consisting of a printed foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from the Netherland possessions in the Indian Archipelago to the United Kingdom, there shall be charged and taken, when transmitted respectively via Southampton (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, or partly by British and partly by French packet boat), an uniform rate of British postage of two pence, and when transmitted respectively via Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by French packet boat, or partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, or partly by British and partly by French packet boat), an uniform rate of postage of three pence; and on every such respective packet transmitted as is hereinbefore in this clause mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively, the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

6. All packets consisting of printed papers, or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Netherland possessions of Surinam or Curaçoa, or posted in the Netherland possessions of Surinam or Curaçoa, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the Netherland possessions of Surinam and Curaçoa respectively, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken when transmitted by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, an uniform rate of British postage of three pence, and when transmitted by French packet boat, or partly by French and partly by Netherland packet boat, an uniform rate of postage of four pence;

And on every such respective packet, transmitted as is hereinbefore in this clause mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively, the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

7. All packets consisting of printed papers, or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Netherland possessions in the Indian Archipelago, or posted in the Netherland possessions in the Indian Archipelago, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the Netherland possessions in the Indian Archipelago respectively, subject to the several rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken, when transmitted via Southampton (the sea conveyance being partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, or partly by British and partly by French packet boat), an uniform rate of British postage of four pence, and when transmitted via Marseilles (the sea conveyance being by French packet boat, or partly by British and partly by Netherland packet boat, or partly by British and partly by French packet boat), an uniform rate of postage of sixpence;

And on every such respective packet, transmitted as is hereinbefore in this clause mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned.

8. All packets transmitted respectively under the authority of the 5th, 6th, and 7th clauses of this Warrant hereinbefore respectively contained, shall, if exceeding the weight of four ounces respectively, be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken three rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken four rates of postage;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and, in charging any additional rate of postage, every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with, under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

9. For the purposes of this Warrant every newspaper transmitted by the post, under the 5th clause of this Warrant, shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate or separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore respectively mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one, and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers, and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

10. Every packet transmitted by the post, under the provisions of the 5th clause of this Warrant, and every packet consisting of printed papers, which shall be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under, and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following; that is to say:

Every British newspaper shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication, and the same shall be registered at the General Post Office in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof;

Every packet shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any word or communication printed on the contents of any such packet after the publication thereof, nor any writing, figures, or marks upon any such contents, or the cover thereof, not authorised by this Warrant, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, news-vendor, or agent by whom the same is sent may be printed on the cover thereof.

11. If any packet mentioned or referred to in the 10th clause of this Warrant be sent, or be tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, otherwise than in conformity with the conditions and regulations established by or under such 10th clause, the same shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall (except in the case provided for in the clause next hereinafter contained), be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom the same shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and any such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rates of postage the Postmaster-General may think fit not exceeding the rates that would be chargeable on such packet as a letter.

12. If any packet mentioned or referred to in the 10th clause of this Warrant sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such letter or communication or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case with the full rates of postage as a letter, and the remainder of the packet may (subject to the provisions of the 16th clause of this Warrant), be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

13. Every packet consisting of patterns, or samples of merchandize, which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinafter contained; that is to say:—

No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value, or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample, shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant;

There shall be no enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet;

There shall be no writing or printing upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, or contained therein, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, and a manufacturer's or trade mark, and number and price of the pattern or sample; and every such manufacturer's or trade mark, number and price, shall be written or printed on labels attached to such patterns or samples, or to the bags or boxes containing the same, and not on loose pieces of paper or other material;

All such packets shall be sent in covers open at the ends so as to be easy of examination; nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen, or other material, which shall be fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened, but closed bags, if transparent, may be used for this purpose.

14. If any packet consisting of patterns, or samples of merchandise, sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained relating thereto, every such packet shall (except in the case next hereinafter otherwise provided for), be chargeable and shall be treated in all respects as a letter.

15. If any packet consisting of patterns, or samples of merchandise, sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet charged in either case with the full rates of postage as a letter, and the remainder of the packet may (subject to the provisions of the 16th clause of this Warrant), be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

16. As to all packets posted in the United Kingdom, under the 5th, 6th, and 7th clauses of this

Warrant, the postage thereof shall, in every case, be prepaid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall, in every case, be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant (unless any such packet be sent from any department or office, in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall have a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account), and if any such packet shall be posted without any postage having been paid thereon as hereinbefore required, or shall be posted with a postage paid thereon as hereinbefore required, which shall be less in amount than the rate or rates of postage payable thereon, under and by virtue of this Warrant, every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage which the Postmaster-General shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet would have been liable as a letter, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if the postage thereof had been properly paid when posted.

17. No packet shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, which shall exceed two feet in length, or one foot in breadth or depth, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

18. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

19. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be dispatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the dispatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

20. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any packet, or anything contained therein, transmitted under or by virtue of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

21. The term "British newspaper" used in this Warrant shall be construed to mean a newspaper printed in the United Kingdom, whether it bear a newspaper stamp or not; the term "printed papers" used in this Warrant shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, be construed to mean and include any number of separate books or other publications, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum, and the books or other publications, prints, or maps may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three, and all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, print, or map, or of a portion thereof, whether such binding, mounting, or covering be loose or attached, as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise), in the case of books, and whatsoever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto, but shall not mean, comprise, or include any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

22. The rates of postage fixed by this present Warrant on the letters and newspapers transmitted as herein respectively mentioned, shall be in lieu of any rates now chargeable by law thereon.

23. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, or conditions in lieu thereof, and may from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

24. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the twenty-fourth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Gerard Noel.

NAVAL SALVAGE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, September 25, 1866.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the amount awarded for salvage service rendered to the barque "Energy," on the 7th January, 1866, by Her Majesty's ship "Surprise."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said award, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any salvor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of Ploughley, in the county of Oxford, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the office of the Clerk of the Commissioners of Taxes,
