TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post, and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, and at any time thereafter by Warrant, under their hands to alter and fix any of the rates of postage therein-mentioned.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas it is expedient to alter the rates of postage now chargeable upon letters, and newspaper and other packets, transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the Republic of Guatemala, and to fix certain other rates in lieu thereof in the manner hereinafter set forth.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament or some or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order, direct, and declare as follows :—

1. On every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Republic of Guatemala, or posted in the Republic of Guatemala, addressed to the United Kingdom, and transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom, and the said Republic viâ Panama (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat or partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat), there shall be charged and taken a uniform rate of British postage of one shilling.

2. On every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or in any foreign country, addressed to the said Republic, or posted in the said Republic, addressed to any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, and transmitted by the post between any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country, and the said Republic through the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and the said Republic by British packet boat or partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat viâ Panama, there shall be charged and taken for such transmission thereof respectively between the United Kingdom and the said Republic a uniform rate of British postage of one shilling.

3. On every such letter so transmitted as hereinbefore mentioned between the United Kingdom and the said Republic, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, that is to say :—

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage ;

And on every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage ;

And on every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage ;

And for every additional half an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage ; and every fractional part of such additional half an ounce in weight shall be charged as an additional half an ounce in weight ; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

4. On every letter transmitted by the post between any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country and the said Republic, through the United Kingdom, the said respective letters being conveyed between the United Kingdom and the said Republic by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat, viâ Panama, there shall be charged and taken, over and above the uniform rates of postage payable thereupon for the transmission thereof between the United Kingdom and the said Republic, such further or additional rates of postage for the conveyance of every such letter between the British colony or foreign country from or to which the same shall be forwarded, and the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival or departure of the packet boat or private ship conveying the same between such colony or foreign country and the United Kingdom, as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted in or addressed to such colony or foreign country, and transmitted to or from such port of arrival or departure in the United Kingdom : Provided that, in all cases where such additional rates include both inland and sea services, there shall be deducted therefrom a sum at the rate of one penny per half ounce for the inland conveyance of every such letter sent through the United Kingdom.

5. Nothing herein contained shall be construed in anywise to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions or privileges granted by or under the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post Office, or to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the privileges to which officers, seamen, soldiers, and others employed in Her Majesty's service are by law entitled of sending and receiving letters by the post, subject to the regulations and restrictions made and in force for the time being in respect of the same.

6. On every packet consisting of a printed British newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the said Republic, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to the said Republic viâ Panama, the sea conveyance being by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat, there shall be charged and taken a uniform British rate of postage of one penny ; and on every packet consisting of a printed colonial or foreign newspaper, not exceeding four ounces in weight, transmitted by the post from any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom to the said Republic viâ Panama (the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to the said Republic being by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat), there shall be charged and taken an uniform British rate of postage of one penny for the conveyance of every such packet from any port in the United Kingdom to the said Republic.

7. All such packets so transmitted as in the sixth clause mentioned, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject for such transmission thereof respectively from the United Kingdom to the said Republic to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say):

On every packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken two rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces, and not exceeding twelve ounces in weight, three rates of postage;

And on every such packet, if exceeding twelve ounces, and not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet above the weight of sixteen ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage; and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

8. On every packet consisting of a printed, colonial, or foreign newspaper, so transmitted as in the sixth clause mentioned, from any of Her Majesty's colonies or any foreign country through the United Kingdom to the said Republic, there shall be charged and taken over and above the several rates of postage payable thereupon under this Warrant for the transmission thereof from the United Kingdom to the said Republic, such further or additional rates of postage for the conveyance of every such packet from the British colony or foreign country from which the same shall be forwarded to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet boat or private ship conveying the same as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on such packets posted in any such British colony or foreign country, and transmitted direct from such colony or foreign country to the port in the United Kingdom of the arrival of the packet boat or private ship conveying the same.

9. For the purposes of this Warrant, every printed newspaper transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be deemed and considered a packet, and shall be charged and chargeable with a separate and distinct single rate, and separate and distinct progressive and additional rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, as hereinbefore mentioned, notwithstanding two or more newspapers shall be enclosed and transmitted in one and the same cover, wrapper, envelope, or bundle, and form only one parcel or bundle of newspapers; and every printed supplement or additional sheet to any newspaper shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

10. Every British newspaper which shall be posted in the United Kingdom for transmission by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be printed and published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days between any two consecutive numbers or parts of such publication; and the same shall be registered by the proprietor or printer thereof, at the General Post Office, in London, and shall be posted within fifteen days from the date of its publication, and the title and the date of the newspaper shall be printed at the top of every page thereof.

11. All packets consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers), or consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize of no intrinsic value, respectively posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the said Republic, or posted in the said Republic addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and the said Republic, via Panama (the sea conveyance being by British packet boat, or partly by British and partly by foreign packet boat), subject to the several rates of British postage hereinafter mentioned (that is to say)—

On every such packet, if not exceeding one ounce in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage of one penny;

And on every such packet, if exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage of two pence;

And on every such packet, if exceeding two ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage of three pence;

And on every such packet, if exceeding four ounces and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage of six pence;

And for every additional four ounces in weight of any such packet, above the weight of eight ounces, there shall be charged and taken an additional rate of postage of three pence, and in charging any such additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional four ounces in weight, shall be charged as an additional four ounces in weight.

12. Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant (except packets consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize) shall be sent open at the ends or sides and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any word or communication printed on the contents of any newspaper packet after the publication thereof, nor any writing, figures, or manual marks whatsoever of any description upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, not authorized by this Warrant, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent; but the name or title of any newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, newsvendor, or agent by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof, and any other packet not being a newspaper may have any matter or thing printed or written on the cover thereof, provided such writing be not of the nature of a letter.

13. Upon every packet posted in the United Kingdom for transmission by the post under the authority of this Warrant, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account.

14. Every packet consisting of printed papers (other than newspapers) which shall be transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant may contain any number of separate books or other publications, printed letters, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, parchment, or vellum, and the books or other publications, prints, or maps, paper, parchment, or vellum, may be either printed, written, or plain, or any mixture of the three; and all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, publication, print, or map, or of a portion thereof, shall be allowed to pass by the post, whether such binding, mounting, or covering be loose or attached, as also rollers, in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise), in the case of books, and whatsoever is necessary for the safe transmission of literary or artistic matter or usually appertains thereto, but no packet shall contain any letter or communication partly written and partly printed, nor shall any packet consist of or contain any photographs, drawings, prints, or other contents which may be obviously of an obscene character.

15. Every packet consisting of patterns or samples of merchandize which shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and conditions following; that is to say:—

There shall be no enclosure, sealed or otherwise, closed against inspection and examination, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant sent in or with any such packet;

No pattern or sample being of any intrinsic value or being an article or thing of a saleable nature, or having a value of its own apart from its mere use as a pattern or sample shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant;

There shall be no writing or printing in or upon any such packet, or on the cover thereof, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender thereof, a trade mark, and numbers and prices, and every such trade mark, number, and price shall be written or printed on labels attached to the patterns or samples, or to the bags containing the same, and not on loose pieces of paper or other material;

All such packets shall be sent in covers, open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination: Nevertheless, samples of seeds, drugs, and such other articles and things as cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen, paper, or other material, tied at the neck, but bags so closed that they cannot be readily opened, even although they be transparent, shall not be used for this purpose.

16. No packet shall be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant which shall exceed two feet in length, or one foot in breadth or depth, unless under the special authority of the Postmaster-General.

17. Every packet transmitted by the post under this Warrant shall be put into the Post Office at such hours in the day and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

18. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained applicable thereto, every such packet shall and may (except in the cases provided for by the clause next hereinafter contained, numbered 19) be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with any rate or amount of postage which the Postmaster-General shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet would have been liable as a letter, nor less than the rate of postage which such packet would have been chargeable with if the postage thereof had been properly paid when posted.

19. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such letter, or communication, or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case, not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage, payable on such respective packets, and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly prepaid, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

20. In order to prevent any obstacle to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post Office may delay the transmission of any packet, posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post, to be forwarded by him.

21. The term "British Newspaper," used in this Warrant, shall be construed to mean a newspaper printed in the United Kingdom, whether it bear a newspaper stamp or not; and the several other terms and expressions, used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

22. In all cases in which any question shall hereafter arise, whether any packet or anything contained therein, transmitted under the provisions of this Warrant, is entitled to the privileges of this Warrant, and to be so transmitted within the intent and meaning thereof, such question shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

23. The several rates of postage fixed by this present Warrant on the letters and packets transmitted by the post as herein respectively mentioned, and also the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereby made applicable to such letters and packets, shall be in lieu of those now chargeable thereon or applicable thereto.

24. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, made by Warrant under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

25. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, the sixteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.
