WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to alter and fix certain rates of postage on certain letters transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Norway, and to make certain regulations with regard thereto, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

1. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Norway, or posted in Norway addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and Norway direct by private ship there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of seven pence if prepaid and of nine pence if not prepaid.

2. And on every letter transmitted as is hereinbefore mentioned exceeding half an ounce in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows, that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every half an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional half an ounce shall be charged as an additional half an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise alter, prejudice, or affect the exemptions and privileges granted by the said firstly hereinbefore recited Act, nor in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen, soldiers, and others employed in Her Majesty's service, now by law enjoy of sending and receiving letters by the post subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.
