THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

NEWPORT (MONMOUTH) FAIRS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 25th day of October, 1879, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices of the borough of Newport, and the Justices of the county of Monmouth, acting in and for the division of Newport, in the said county, that certain Fairs have been annually held within the town of Newport, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that certain alterations should be made in the days for holding the said Fairs within the said town, and that the Fair hitherto held on Holy Thursday be held in future on the second Wednesday in the month of April; that the Fair hitherto held on Thursday in Whitsun week be held in future on Wednesday in Whitsun week; that the Fair hitherto held on the 15th of August be in future held on the second Wednesday in August, and that the Fair hitherto held on the 6th of November be in future held on the first Wednesday in November.

2. On the 5th day of January, 1880, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the said proposed alterations in the time for holding the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, December 5, 1879.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. All Treasury Warrants at any time heretofore made relating to the conveyance by post of postal packets (which term in this Warrant means and includes all letters, post cards, newspapers, packets of commercial papers, packets of printed papers, and pattern or sample packets) between the United Kingdom and Venezuela, and also between any British Colony or Foreign Country and Venezuela are hereby repealed to the extent to which such Warrants respectively relate to the several matters comprised in this Warrant as aforesaid.

2. The rates of postage and additional sums for registration now chargeable and payable by the authority of the Treasury Warrant of the 29th day of May, 1879, or the schedules thereunder written, on postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post from or to Salvador to or from any other country or place, and all regulations and conditions as to the posting, forwarding, conveyance, and delivery of postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post, now in force and applicable thereto shall extend and apply to all postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post from or to the United States of Venezuela to or from any other country or place in the same way as if the United States of Venezuela had been named in such before mentioned Warrant of the 29th day of May, 1879, or the schedules thereunder written.

3. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1880.

Dated this third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.
