INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of All Saints, within the Parish of Melton Saint Mary and All Saints, otherwise called Great Melton, for the Old Church of Saint Mary, in the County of Norfolk, and Diocese of Norwich.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built upon the foundation of the ancient consecrated church of All Saints, within the parish of Melton Saint Mary and All Saints (otherwise and herein-after called Great Melton), in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, and the same is therefore known as the church of All Saints.

And whereas the Honourable and Right

Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, and the Master or Keeper and Fellows of Gonville and Caius College, in the University of Cambridge, the patrons of the rectory of the said parish of Great Melton, and the Reverend Alfred George Day, Clerk in Holy Orders, Rector of the same rectory, have, by an instrument bearing date on or about the twenty-fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Great Melton, that the said new church of All Saints, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint Mary) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Com-
