

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

21. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of or in consequence of any loss or damage of any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any officer of the Post Office or any other person.

Customs Regulations.

22. Parcels intended to be transmitted by post under the provisions of this Warrant shall not be posted, forwarded, conveyed, or delivered, except subject to such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

Remission of Postage.

23. The Postmaster-General may, in any case in which he may consider it just or reasonable so to do, remit any postage or any sum made payable under this Warrant.

Commencement of Warrant.

24. This Warrant shall come into operation on the fifteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Dated this thirty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Herbert Eustace Maxwell, Sidney Herbert,

Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Henry Cecil Raihes, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. All Treasury Warrants at any time heretofore made relating to the conveyance by post of postal packets (which term in this Warrant means and includes all letters, post cards, reply post cards, newspapers, packets of commercial papers, packets of printed papers, and pattern or sample packets) between the United Kingdom on the one hand, and the German Protected Territory in New Guinea, and the German Postal Agency at Apia, in the Samoan Islands, on the other hand, and also between any British Colony or foreign country and the said Protected Territory and Postal Agency, are hereby annulled to the extent to which such Warrants respectively relate to the several matters comprised in this Warrant, as aforesaid.

2. The rates of postage and additional sum for registration now chargeable and payable by the authority of the Treasury Warrants of the 29th day of May, 1879, the 14th day of January, 1880, the 15th day of June, 1880, and the 9th day of March, 1886, or any one of them, on postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post from or to New Caledonia, to or from any other country or place affected by the provisions of the said Warrants, or any one of them, and all regulations and conditions now in force as to the posting, forwarding, conveyance, and delivery of postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post between New Caledonia and any other country or place as aforesaid, shall extend and apply to all postal packets conveyed or delivered for conveyance by post from or to the German Protected Territory in New Guinea and the German Postal Agency at Apia to or from any other country or place affected by the provisions of the said Warrants, in the same way as if the aforesaid Protected Territory and Postal Agency had been named or referred to in the said Warrants and the schedules thereunder written, in the same manner as New Caledonia is named or referred to therein.

3. This Warrant shall come into operation on the second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Dated this seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.
